

RYDE HUNTERS HILL HOCKEY CLUB SELECTION POLICY

INTRODUCTION

The Ryde Hunters Hill District Hockey Club selection policy applies to team selection for teams entered by the club in junior and senior competition.

There are separate provisions relating to the selection of junior teams, relative to the selection of senior teams, recognising the different demands of junior and senior competition and competition regulations, and recognising also that senior teams are selected on a week to week basis.

The provisions concerning senior teams recognise also that team selection embraces two phases. The first phase consists of the selection of provisional team squads during the preseason. The second phase comprises weekly selections during the course of the competition proper.

Reference in this policy to the 'relevant President' throughout this policy refers to the Women's President, the Men's President or Juniors' President as the case may be.

Players who nominate for selection in Ryde junior teams and who are intending to play senior hockey are required to play senior hockey for Ryde. Equally players intending to play senior hockey for Ryde and who are eligible for selection in Ryde junior teams are required to play junior hockey for Ryde.

Players who nominate for selection in Ryde senior teams and who are intending to play masters hockey are required to play masters hockey for Ryde, if Ryde fields a masters' team. Equally players nominating to play masters hockey for Ryde and who intend to play senior hockey in a SHA administered competition are required to play senior hockey for Ryde.

There is a limited provision for exemption from the requirements concerning the obligation to play hockey for Ryde across different competitions. Request for exemption will be addressed by the RHHDHC Management Committee on a case by case basis.

JUNIORS SELECTION POLICY Guiding principles for selection decisions

1. ORGANISATION OF PRESEASON	1.1 The Juniors' President will advise a calendar of training and trial information. 1.2 Barring injury and exceptional circumstances, players must attend trials in order to be considered for selection. Injured players may be asked to provide evidence in support of their absence from trials. 1.3 Throughout trials, resources will be utilised to assist the identification of players. This process is assisted by the early season registration of players.
